DISCIPLESHIP

The conditions of discipleship outlined in today's Gospel written by Matthew may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.

From the Pastor...

My dear friends,

“See, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?” These words of God, spoken through the prophet Isaiah (43:19), are said to his people in every place and in every age, and it has a special meaning for us as our three parishes of Blessed Sacrament, Our Lady of Peace, and Saint Christopher join together to form one new Catholic family of faith: the Parish of Saint Edmund Campion.

God is doing something new for us, as he is in many parishes throughout our archdiocese. Can we perceive it? Can we appreciate it?

Change can be difficult, of course, because it usually involves a loss of some kind. Certainly, that’s understandable and we need to give ourselves permission to grieve. But, as time goes by, we will find healing and, while healing, we will recognize the many benefits that also come from change.

When God does something new, it is always for our good. Nothing bad comes from our good God. This time of change is also a time of excitement as the rewards of God’s work unfold before us.

I’m greatly impressed by the good things that have been happening as our three parishes work together to become one parish. Many people from each parish know people from the other parishes and so now, friends who worshipped God separately, can worship God together as a new family of one faith.

There was a time when the faithful of all three parishes were together: Saint Christopher’s began as a mission of Blessed Sacrament in 1955 and Our Lady of Peace began as a mission of Saint Christopher’s and became a parish in its own right in 1971. Now we’re together again, and we’ve moved a few steps closer to respond to the prayer of Jesus: “May they all be one.”

It is my privilege and delight to serve you as the pastor of the new parish family of Saint Edmund Campion. I look forward to working with you as we become instruments of God’s work in East Hartford. “See, I am doing something new!” says the Lord. “ Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?”

May God bless you all,

Father John Gwozdz, Pastor

SAINT EDMUND CAMPION (January 24, 1540 – December 1, 1581) (Feast Day: December 1)

Edmund Campion was born in London, the son of a bookseller. As a child, Campion excelled academically and entered St John’s College, Oxford, at the age of 15. He was ordained a deacon in the Anglican Church in 1564. Increasingly, Campion came to believe that the Catholic church was the true continuation of the Christian faith and only there would he find a home. In 1571 he entered the new seminary for English Catholics founded at Douai in France. He was ordained subdeacon and then walked, barefoot, to Rome to become a Jesuit in April 1573. Campion pursued his studies as a Jesuit and was ordained a priest in 1578. He was persuaded to join the first mission that was sent by the Jesuits to minister to the Catholics of England, who were strictly forbidden to practice their religion. Campion entered England in the guise of a jewel merchant, arriving in London on June 24, 1580. He moved between the houses of Catholics who practiced their religion in secret. At one such house, he was betrayed and was arrested on July 17, 1581. He was imprisoned and tortured in the Tower of London. When he refused under severe torture to recant his religious convictions, his captors invented charges that he had conspired to overthrow the queen. He was convicted of treason and executed. Throughout his ordeal, Campion exhibited religious zeal and great courage. He was canonized in 1970 by Pope Paul VI.

What is Lectio Divina?

While reading sacred scripture, read the words with a love and sense of discovery until something seems to strike home. Sit with the passage as one would with a good friend—not just thinking or analyzing, but instead remaining in a quiet, listening spirit, so the word can nurture and challenge you.

Call to Prayer: “Let us take a moment in the midst of all our activity to prepare ourselves for prayer.”

*Excerpts from SNOW FALLING ON SNOW

The Word of God: Choose one of next Sunday’s readings. One person reads the scripture aloud as others are attentive to a word, phrase, or theme that is meaningful to them. Allow for a minute of silent reflection. Have another person read the same scripture a second time.

Faith Sharing: Begin with an open ended question such as “What strikes you from this reading?” and/or you can use the “Reflection Question” found below. Allow time for reflection & sharing.

Closing Prayer: At the end of the faith sharing, invite participants to pray aloud for any particular petitions or praises they may have. Feel free to close with: The Lord’s Prayer or spontaneous prayers or a faith-based song.

Reflection for Next Sunday, July 9, 2017 – 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus humbly accepted his situation in life, and always trusted totally in his heavenly Father. Jesus is saying the same thing in the Gospel: don’t depend upon yourself, trust in Him to help carry your burdens. More importantly, learn to carry your own burdens with His yoke — He is there to help you, to lighten your burden. That is what Humility is all about, learning to turn humbly to Jesus, acknowledge your need, and accept His help.
